LIABILITY AGREEMENT

Orion Psychotherapy strives to provide a safe and healthy environment for our clients who meet with us for therapy sessions. In order to maintain this standard during Covid 19, the following measures and practices have been put into place:

1. All clients are welcome to remain in the parking area until their appointment time however the waiting room is open.
2. Client and therapist will both wear masks when meeting in the lobby upon entry.
3. Clients are required to wash hands prior to the session.
4. Client and therapist will wear masks until settled in the office, at which point masks may be removed during the session while social distancing (6 feet or more apart while seated).
5. Therapist will manually enter credit card information for payment.
6. Masks will be replaced prior to exiting the office.
7. There will be no handshakes, hugs or touch of any kind at this time.
8. The office kitchen/refreshment area and lobby will be used at client discretion at this time.

In spite of these precautions and measures to promote safety, we cannot ensure that clients will be absolutely free from infection or virus while in our office. Due to this, we are asking that all clients requesting an in-office session sign the following statement/agreement:

I, _____, understand that Orion Psychotherapy is not liable for any illness I might incur while attending a session at Orion Psychotherapy.
